

blind date

You each got an Iderm facial. What was the treatment like?

ERIC: It was wonderful! A great experience. They gave me this wrap that soaked nutrients into my pores and rejuvenated everything. Marianne was just a doll. Totally enjoyed her company and she talked about everything she was doing and the benefits.

PAUL: Well it started with the woman telling me to strip down and lay down on the table. [Laughs] But it was actually really great. She did a deep cleansing, wrapped my face, massaged my face.

We love it when a date includes the phrase, "Strip and lay down," but usually not when it's coming from a woman.

IS THIS A SPA OR SURGEON'S OFFICE?

NEVER LOOKED BETTER!

Did you see a noticeable difference post facial?

ERIC: I was totally glowing. [Laughs] I did see a difference in me and Paul. He looked a little tore up before but after he looked completely fresh and regenerated. [Laughs]

PAUL: Yeah, I did. I actually got compliments for a few days after. Talk about a backhanded compliment.

What did you think of Face to Face?

ERIC: I would totally go back there. I actually already recommended it to a friend of mine.

PAUL: I thought it was great! I would definitely go back again.

So, what did you guys do after the facials?

ERIC: We actually went shopping at the mall. We hung a bit and then we went out that night. [Laughs] We continued on.

PAUL: Afterwards we hung out a bit, got Pinkberry and did some shopping, and then we actually ended up meeting for drinks later on.

THE VERDICT WILL THERE BE A DATE #2?

ERIC: Oh, we kept it going. [Laughs] So, hands down I would say yes.

PAUL: Well we did hang out later on that night and I'm sure we'll hang out again, but he did tell me he was also sorta seeing someone else. [Laughs]
