

fitness

wellness

nutrition

beauty

pulp ▾

re

Home > Beauty > Vitamin Glam

October 2, 2009

Send to a Friend ↔

Vitamin Glam

You've never taken vitamins this way before.

Vitamin #1: I could do amazing things if someone just gave me the chance. I could slow aging, ease wrinkles, make people glow!

Vitamin #2: Why don't you get the chance?

Vitamin #1: Oh, you know, no one likes pills. It always begins well, but inevitably, I wind up in the back of the closet beside forgotten cans of beans.

Vitamin #2: You should meet Marianne Kehoe. Since I found her, I've been plumping skin, lifting sags and making people smile. And what a work environment! Sparkling spa oasis fit for a star--keep it on the down-low, but Will and Jada Pinkett-Smith own the building.

Vitamin #1: What do you do there?

Vitamin #2: I'm part of the IDerm facial. Marianne uses a galvanic machine--a very light electric current that can't be felt--to help deliver loads of vitamins to the skin, beautifying from the inside out. Marianne even does extensive extractions, I'm talking 20 minutes' worth, so we vitamins can get deep in there and do our work.

Vitamin #1: Does she have room for me?

Vitamin #2: There's always room for another pretty face.

Face to Face Los Angeles, 11331 Ventura Blvd., Suite 2A, Studio City, (818) 505-0107, MAP

Get the 25% off the IDerm facial through the end of October--just mention Vital Juice! Book it here.

Share This:

Buzz up!

digg

del.icio.us

Stumble

Facebook